SUPPLEMENT TO INDEX OF 1894 STATE OF MICHIGAN CENSUS
FOR WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN; SOME ANN ARBOR TOWNSHIP NAMES

Contributed by Nancy H. Krohn

The names printed below are from pages 3 through 31 of the Ann Arbor Township portion of the 1894 State of Michigan Census, Washtenaw County. These names were omitted from an index of the county names compiled by the Sarah Caswell Angell Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and published by the Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County in 1984 (Index of 1894 State Census for Washtenaw County, Michigan). One other name (Koezel) was found to have been omitted from page 33. No examination has been made of other townships for possible missing names. We wish to thank GSWC member Margaret L. Sias who called to our attention that households known to her as having resided in Ann Arbor Township in the 1890s were missing from the index. These included Haas, Hagen, Forshee, Cowan, Nowland, Jetter, Zeeb, Braun, Popkins, Mowerson, and Koch.

The enumeration of Ann Arbor Township was done by John Jones from 11 June to 15 June 1894. In 1894 the township consisted of Sections 1-11, part of Section 12 and Sections 28 -36. The remaining sections were part of the City of Ann Arbor, incorporated as a village in 1840 and as a city in 1876. A check with Polk's 1890 Washtenaw County Directory reveals that most of the families listed below are to be found along Traver Road, Pontiac Trail, Dhu Varren Road, Stein Road, and what is now Nixon Road, all being in the north part of the township.

The first figure represents the age of the individual, the second figure, the census page number. An original census is found in the Michigan Historical Collections, Bentley Historical Library, The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Microfilm copies are held by the Family History Library (LDS). Much information is found in this census.

The editors welcome comments and other corrections.
